Go placidly amid the noise and the haste and remember what peace there may be in silence.

Abbey

As far as possible, without surrender, be on good terms with all people.
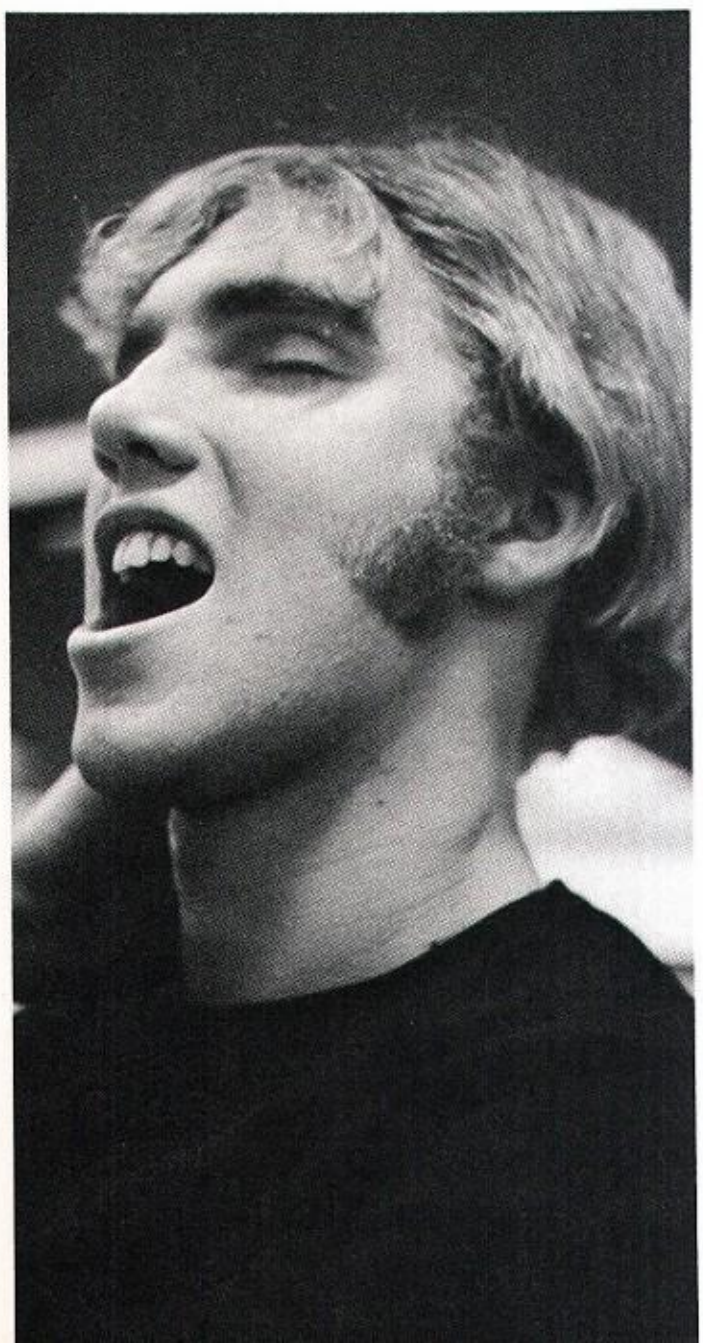
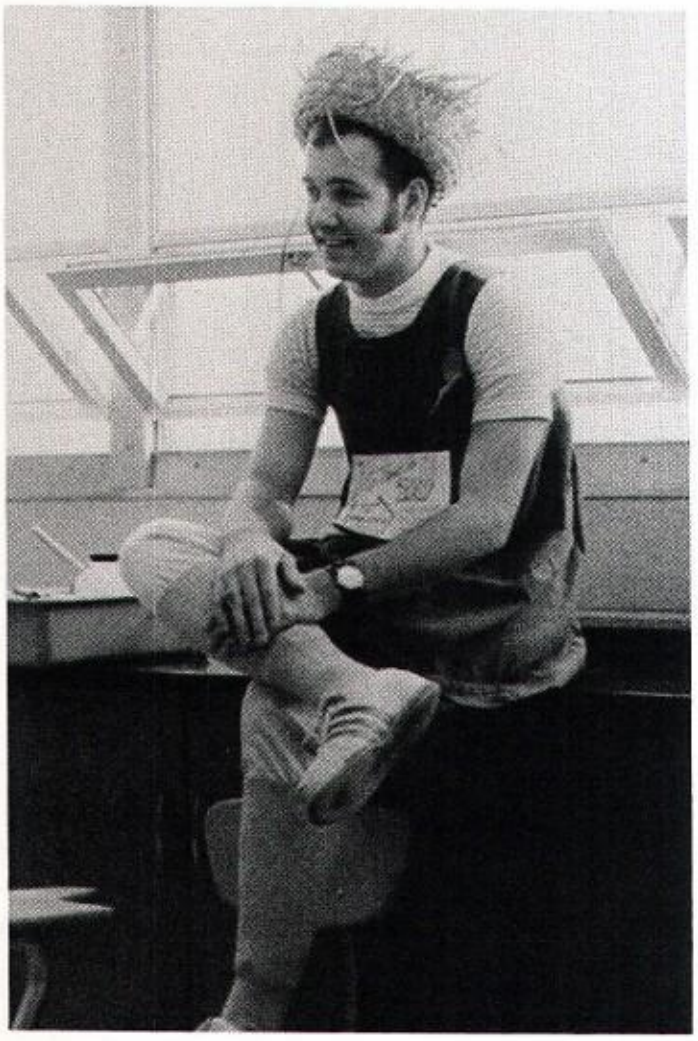
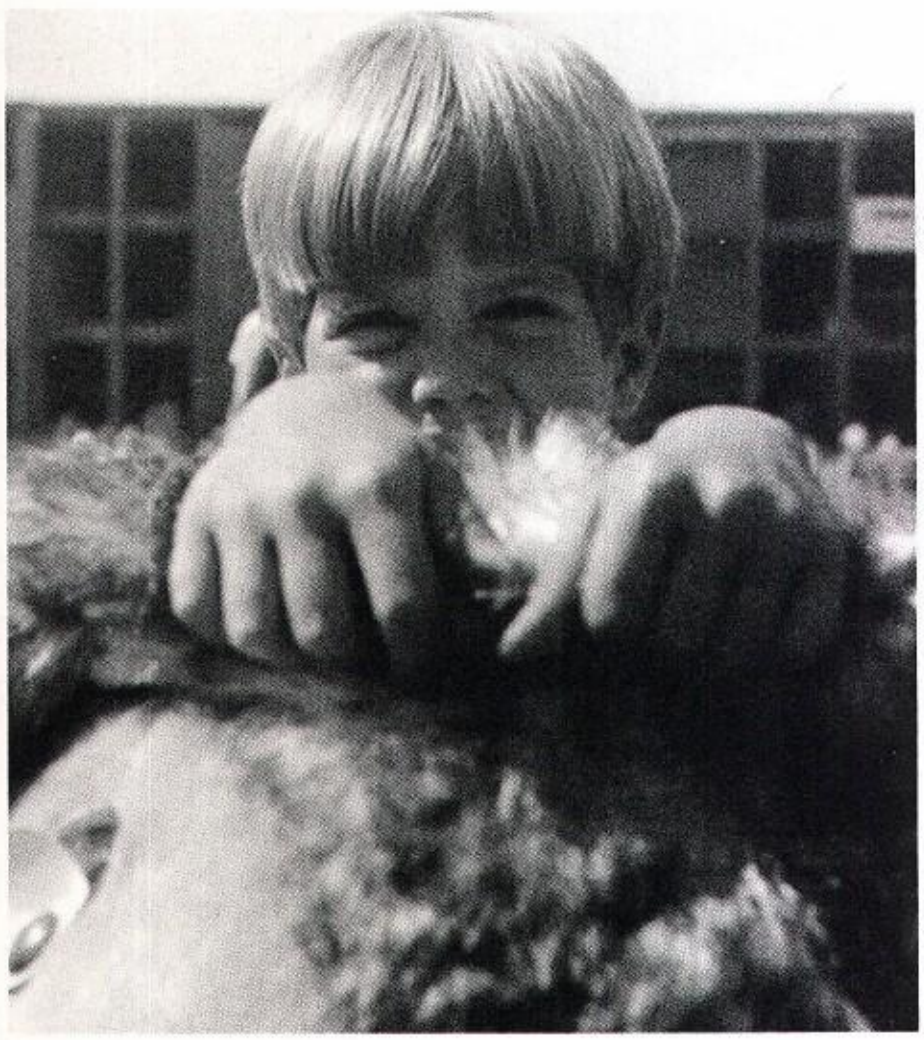
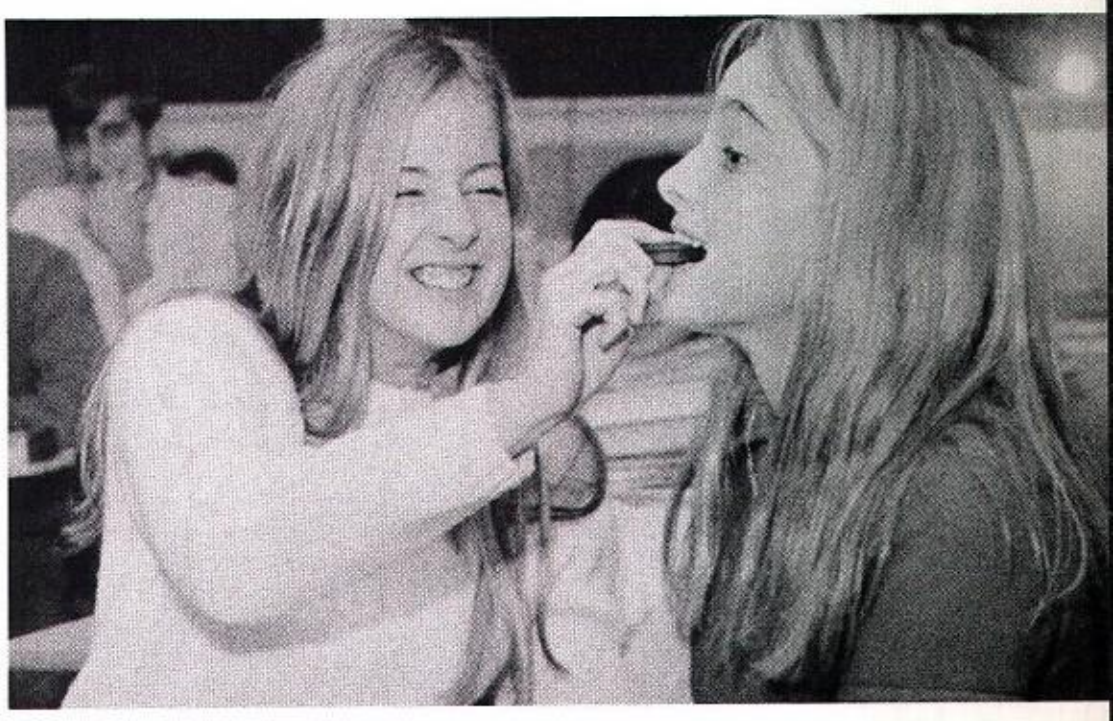
Speak your truth quietly and clearly.
Listen to others.



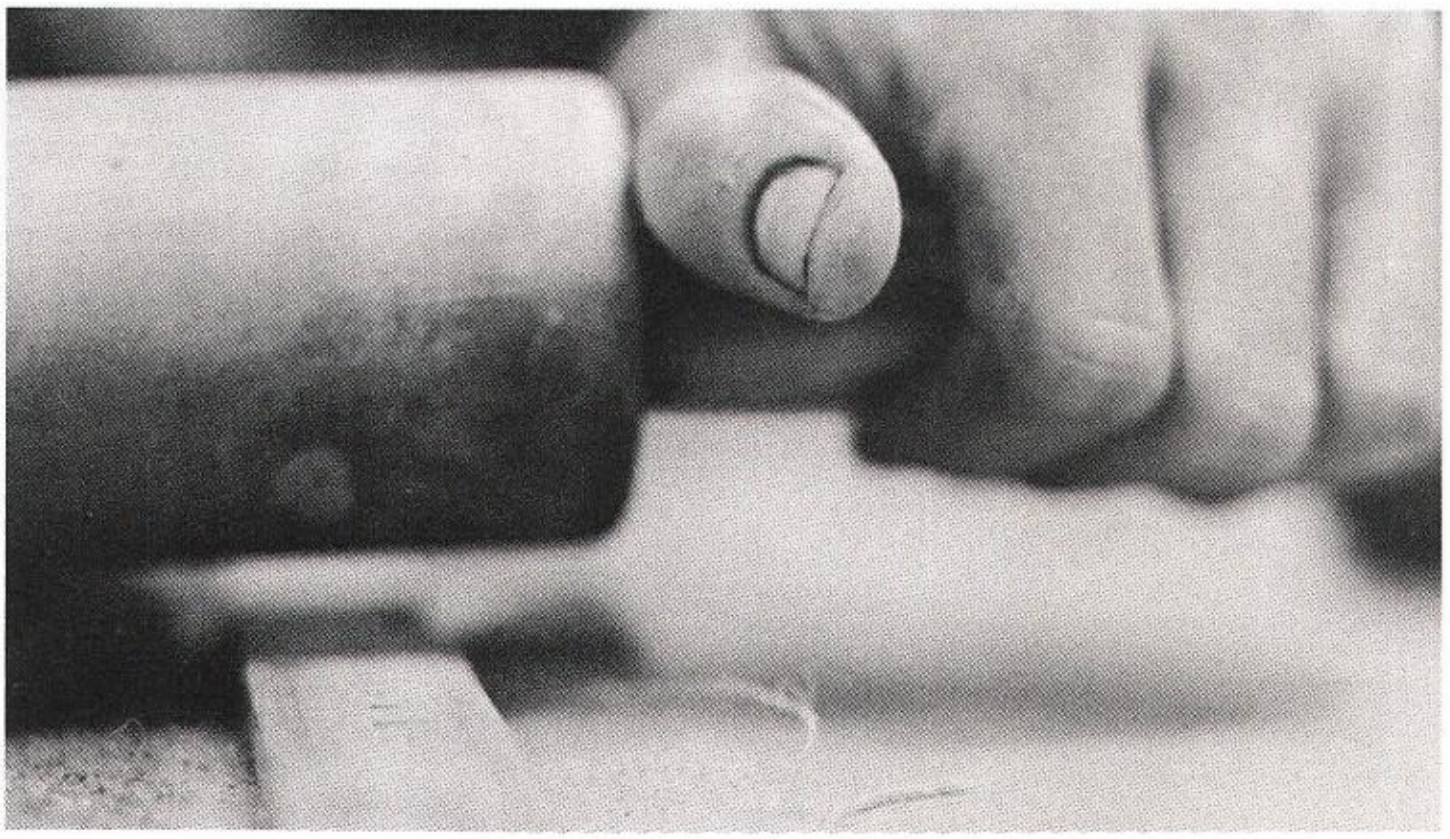
Take kindly to the counsel of years

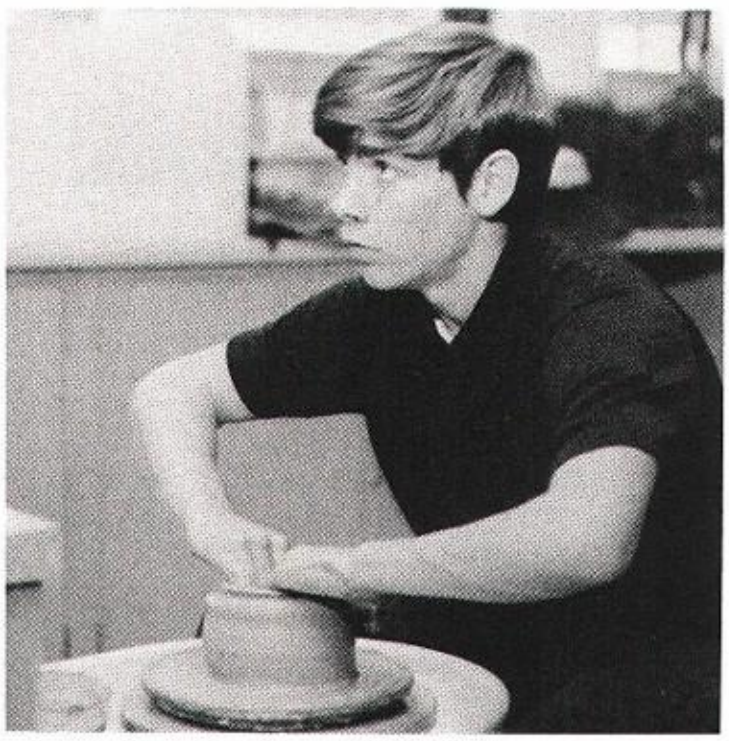


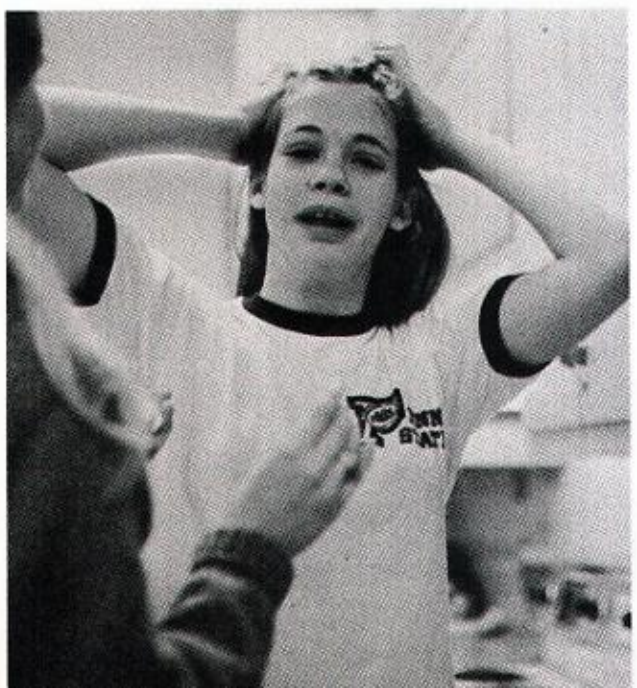




gracefully surrendering things of youth.







Many persons strive for high ideals.
Everywhere life is full of heroism.

You are a child of the universe no less than the trees and the stars.
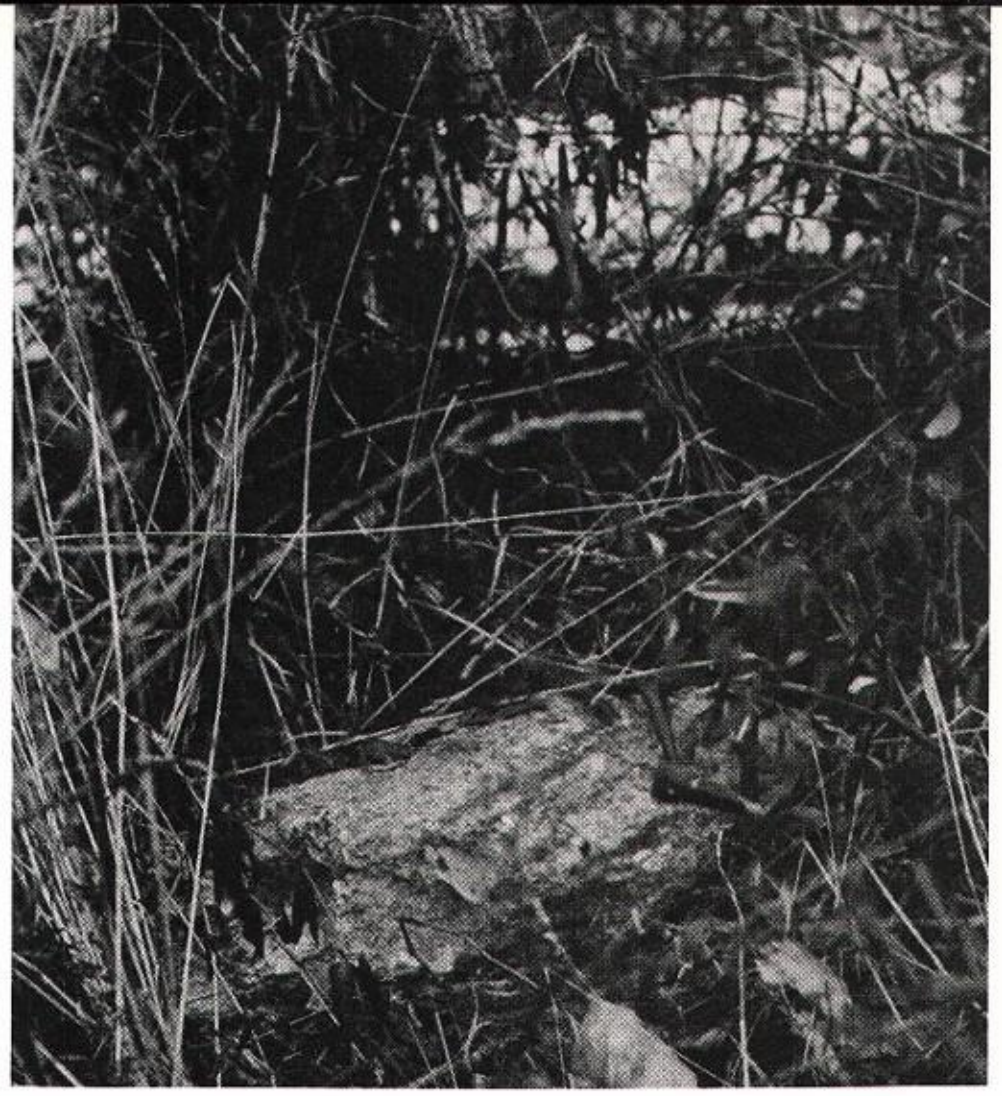
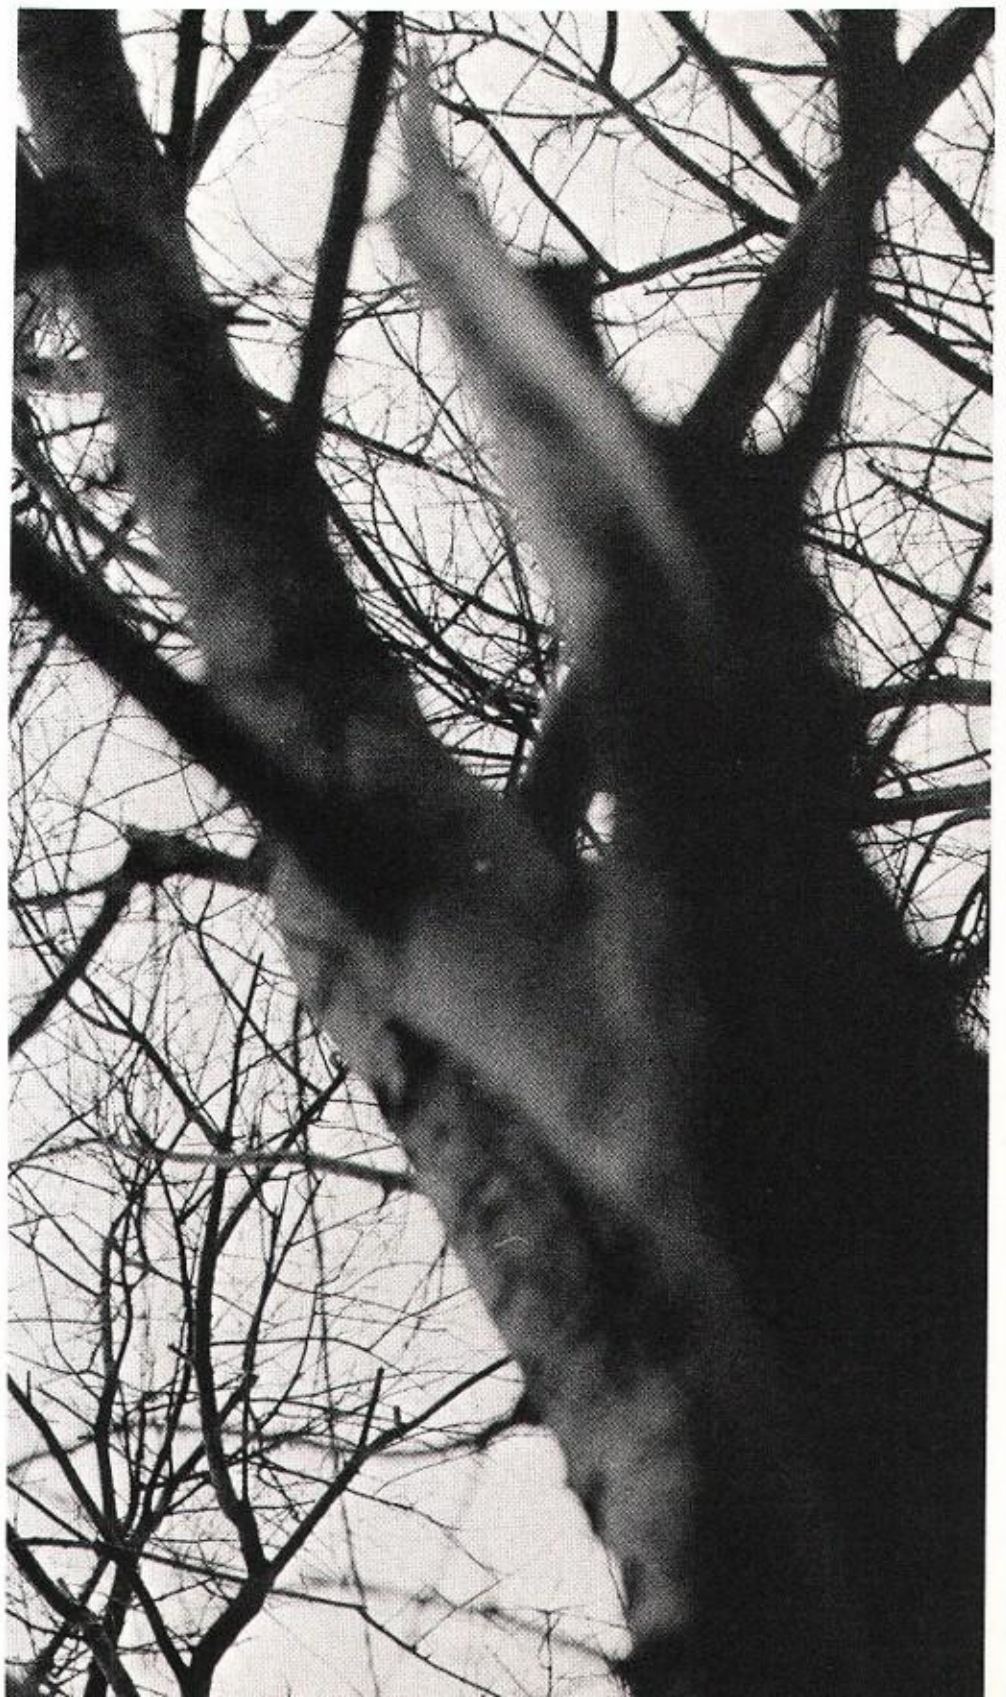
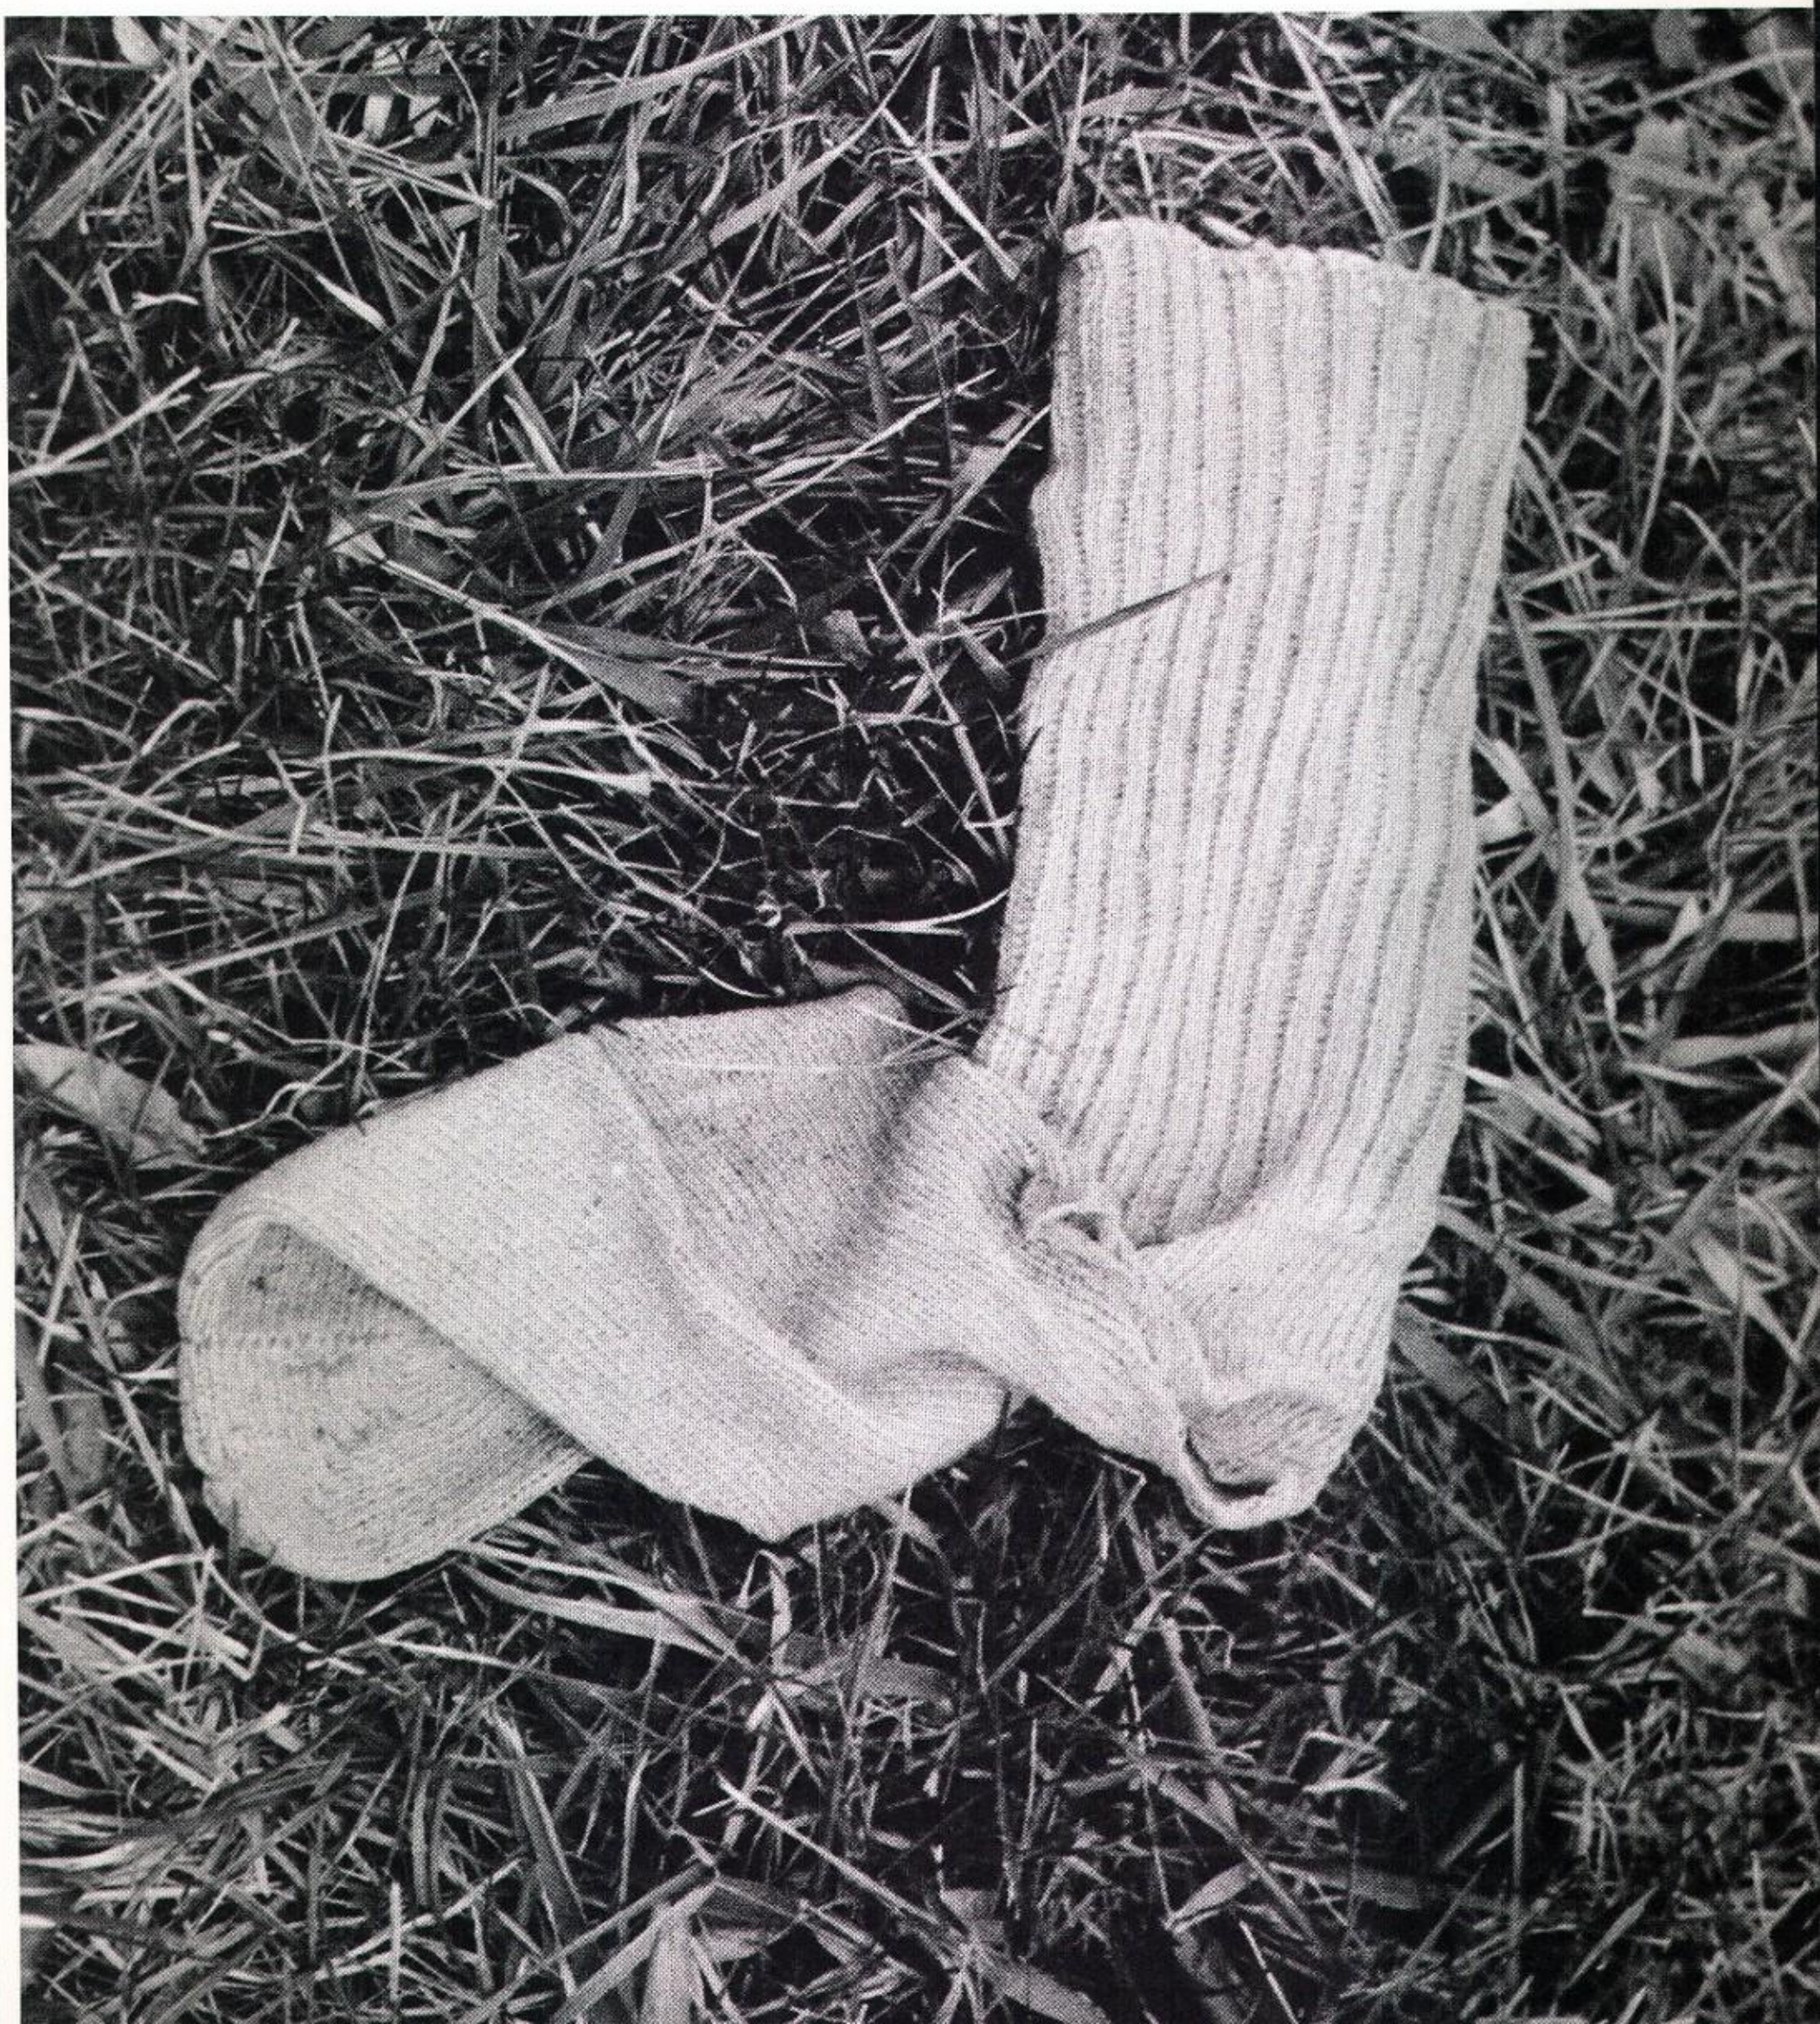
You have a right to be here.







And whatever your labors and aspirations in the noisy confusion of life . . .
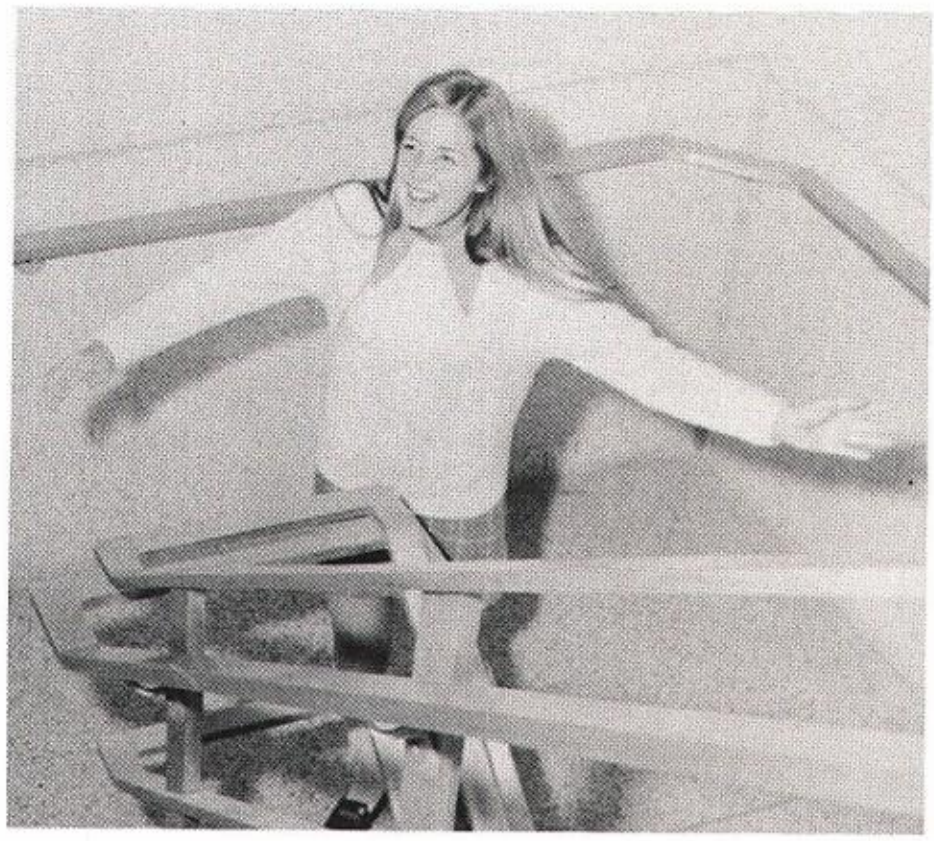
Keep peace with your soul.



. . . take kindly to the counsel of years

faculty principals

Anthony J. Cataldo

There is something about them something strangely intangible yet quietly real that defies all description . . .
Experience for yourself
the singularity of them . . .
a unique composite of care and wisdom mingled with 5′2″ and two crazy grins constantly breaking down the barrier labeled authority.
Discover the meaning of giving and understanding . . .
Only then can you realize our privilege.

cheerleading

With a tradition of pride behind them . . .
hands outstretched united in one spontaneous smile.
Win or lose
it doesn't matter
They say it for us all . . .
We're from L.M. couldn't be prouder.

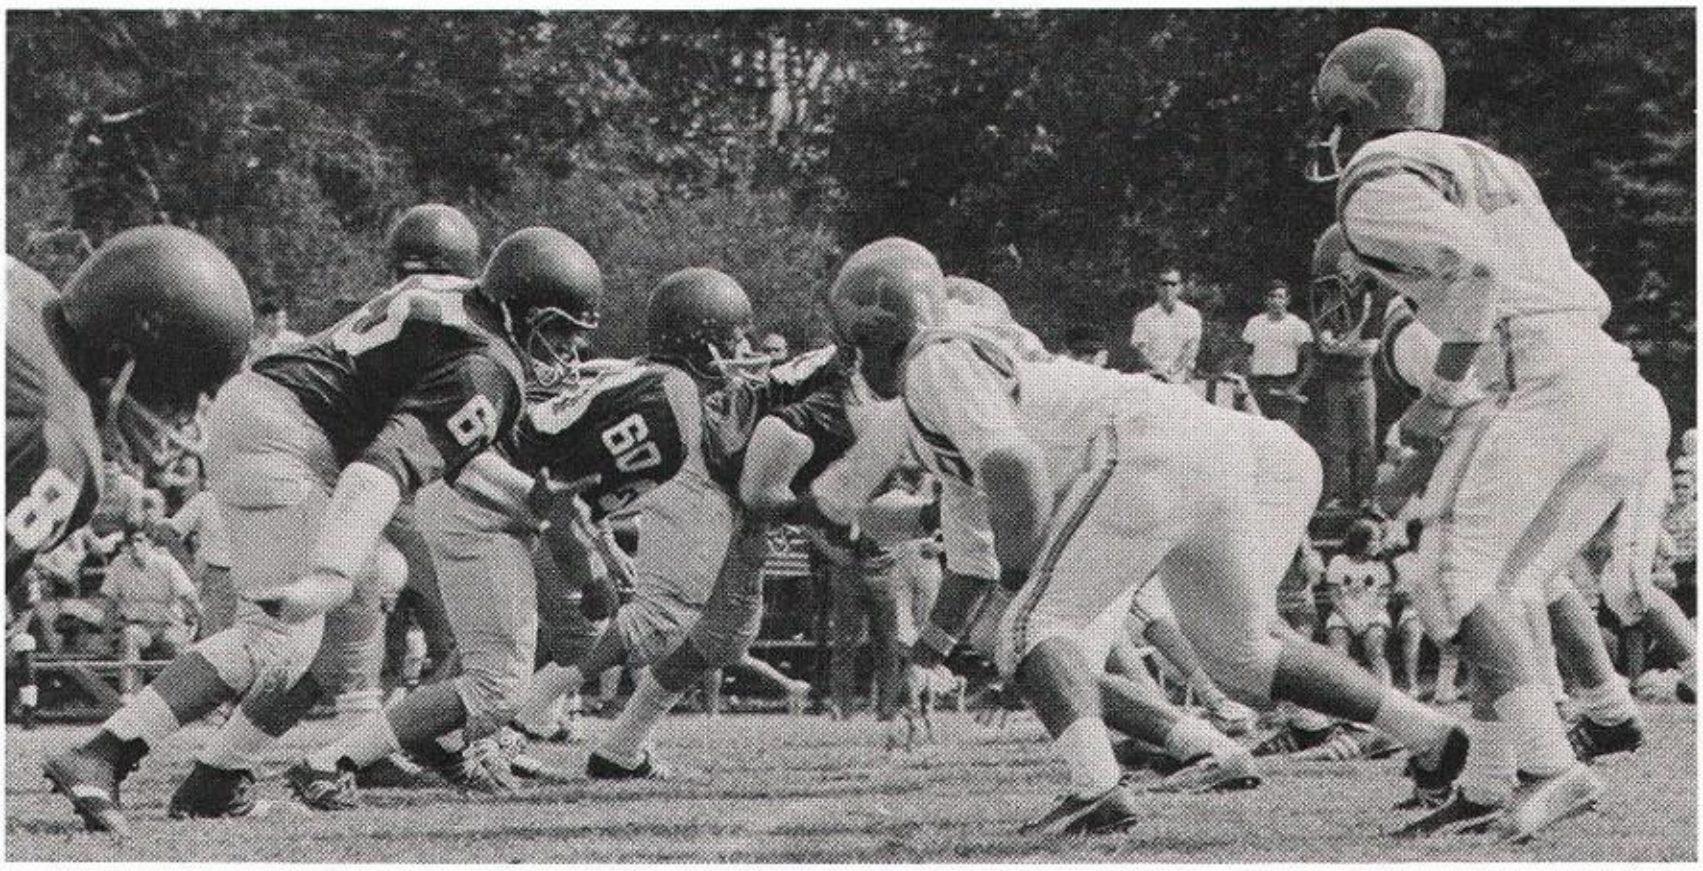
football



No one but a football player could ever know . . .
Faces hidden by blue helmets conceal the gut utterances of endurance and toil.
Bodies drenched in sweat, mud and courage fighting on—against all odds.
Admire their skill
Respect their dedication.
Undaunted, they stood firm,
Defying the scoreboard.

homecoming

The fire—

Igniting sparks of anticipation,
Reflecting a spectrum of enthusiasm,
Leaving a halo of oneness on waiting faces . . .

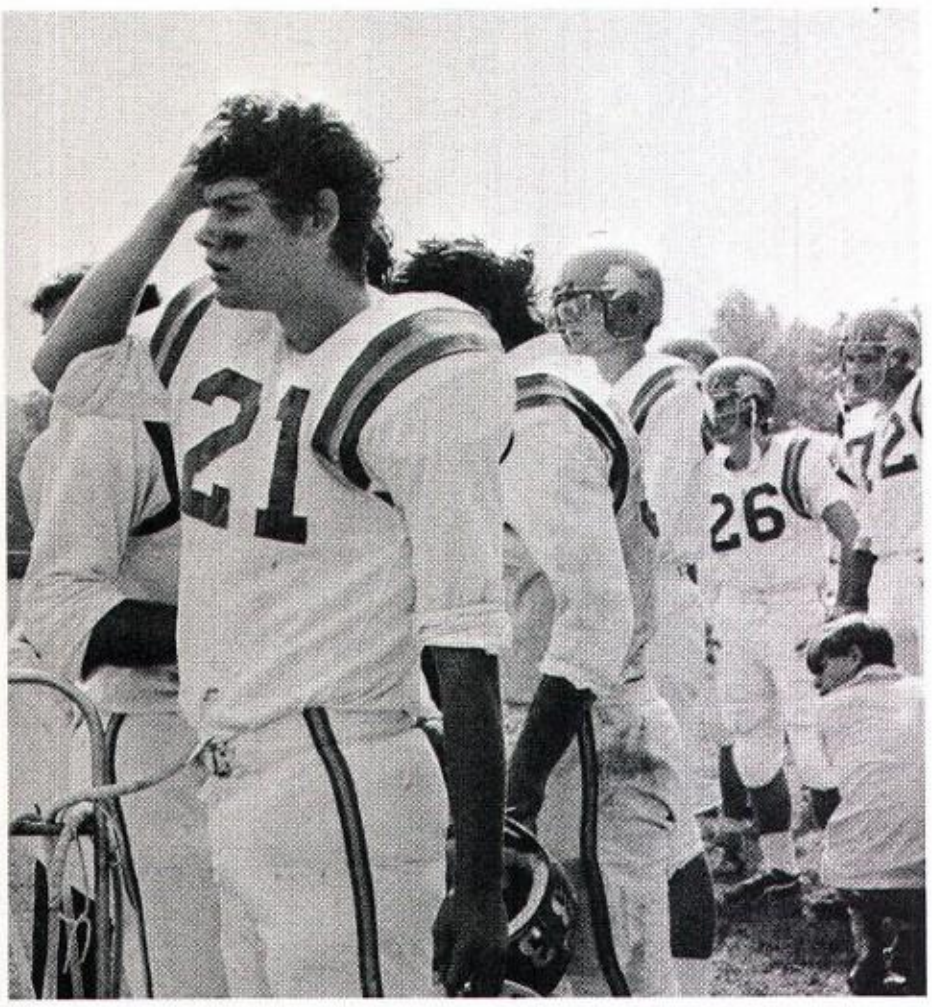
THE QUEEN—Patti Schenk escorted by Will Schaefer.



Come Saturday morning . . .
fast paced and exciting soft, easy and lingering
And under shining sun
We came together—sidelines splashed with Blue and Gold
a carousel of spirit to herald
the Coming of the Queen a collage of smiling faces 6 . . . 16 . . . 60 bridging the GAP meeting within the bond of common purpose
as the Men, our Men, fought on . . .
Under shining sun
We united—
Lower Moreland Homecoming.
And we will remember long after Saturday's gone . . .

This year was different.
This year
"close"
just wasn't good enough.
There was only one way—to change to care to sweat perfect synchronization of the mechanics of the game.
Eleven gold shirts scattered to control every inch of the field.
This year they wanted to win . . .
and they did.

A team
Together.
blistering summer . . . bitter autumn
Eager to challenge and be met Impatience questioning . . . Practice answering Slamming, Slashing towards a goal
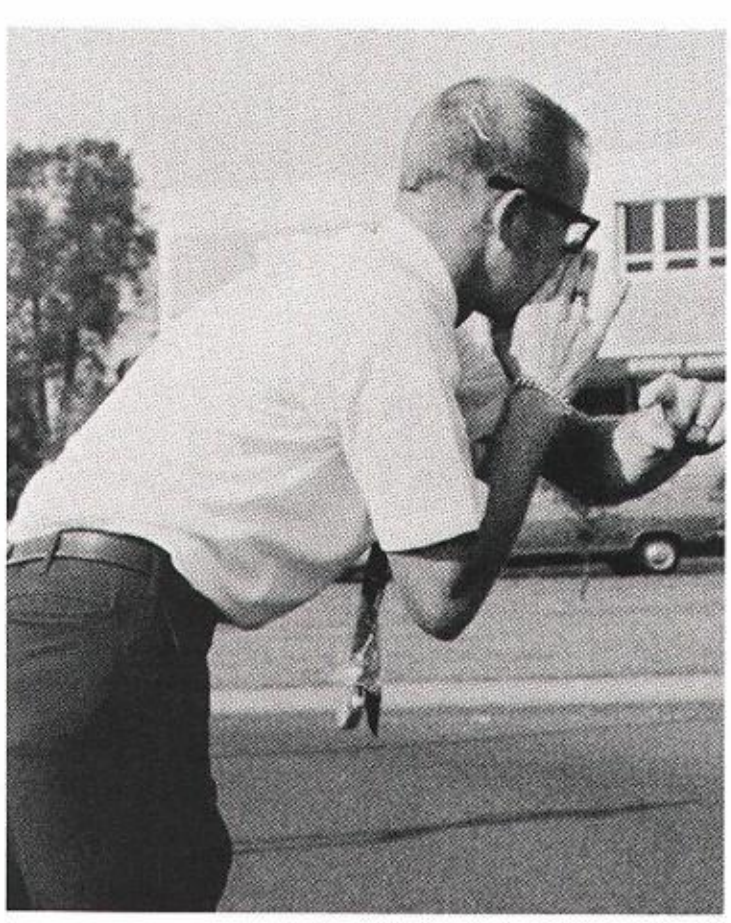
Together
They win.

cross country



Coach Rapson.

Two cold naked legs taut in nervous anticipation wait.
Sweaty palms rub against bare thighs.
Red-flagged markers flutter patiently.
"Runners take your mark . . ."
seconds . . . minutes . . . and the legs keep running Pushing with every ounce of undiscovered strengt . . . an aching body that has given, endured and triumphed.

1. Each player takes a turn with the dice and moves the spaces shown on dice
2. If a player lands on a space where another player is, he sends that player
a. back to start if neither player has reached the sink yet, or
b. back to sink if players are past sink.
3. If a player reaches sink by an even number, he loses his turn.

For once in my life I've learned to love somebody. (I guess 4 is the lucky number).
Remember the dark, starry, muddy February night in the field?
Jackie and Fenton, for keeps!!!
You smokers think you can mock disease and death.
SODOM reigns forever!
"To go to French class is human, to stay awake divine."
The Brace, the Brain, and the Rinky Dink really dig cake!
Best wishes for a successful future!
Get hot P.G.P., B.K. won't wait forever.
PEEK-A-BOO
I'll get even with you yet, Diane!
S.S., Glad you had a good time in St. Paul with D.W.
OCA has melted finals.
Don't paint a picture of yourself—it might smear.
Mr. & Mrs. L. Auerweck
Gladys & Thelma forever, close but no cigar.
The BBR is omnipotent—boo, tomatoes!
Screwy, Ugly and Chip-a-roonies.
BBR and drive-ins . . . oh WOW!
CHIGGER
Sarah and New York Times
To J.J.: How long will you be in Arizona?
Car rallies are a bomb with Berthe and Joan . . .
Always remember our very special "Lunches" L.D., L.G. & J.L.
Merrily and Robert forever.
55 NOMAD
55 Chevrolet rules 327 13:29 M.G.D.W.
Peg and Mark, June 30, 1970
Fried jelly beans aren't that bad, right B.C.?
To ice of block, Cheetah's girl, Cheetah, and Clumsy.
Pete Heverin is Heavy right J.Q.?
"Hugh no, Hilda conquers all, Hey us Hammers, peanie roshna.
Choo Choo Charlie does?
Hug me—Kiss me, D.Q.
Life is but a fatal glass of beer.
Jackie Milne's middle name is Howie.
Jack Milne wants to hold your hand.
Hey girl, where didja get that Coke?
To Holingsworth with love.
Peter Porter picked a peck of pickled peppers.
Schmick and Yabol, from Old Country! (One GREAT Year!!!)
For a quick recipe of Pinkham-Drinkum . . .
